

TCU's band puts its game face on

Passionate collectors find the perfect home

At work with a K9 bomb sniffer

The Worn project:
Do good, look good

360 West

A FULL-CIRCLE VIEW OF WHERE WE LIVE

fall style preview

free-spirited in West Texas

$3.95 September 2011

EatDrink

Tidbits, morsels and other tasty things

Cheers

www.baileysprimeplus.com

- Bailey's Prime Plus in the West 7th development introduced its specialty cocktail menu last month. That's no surprise, as the Dallas-based steakhouse recently lured nationally known Eddie "Lucky" Campbell away from Oak Cliff's Bolsa to become Bailey's bar director, along with creative consultant Mike Martensen. Included on the menu is the Buckshot (Maker's Mark whiskey, lime juice, peach puree, cane syrup, Peychaud's Bitters and ginger beer) and The Trophy Wife (Grey Goose vodka, St-Germain liqueur, white cranberry juice, lime juice, lavender bitters and grapefruit bitters). 2901 Crockett St., Fort Worth. 817-870-1100; www.baileysprimeplus.com

— Meda Kessler